

NOTICE
2015/2016 Batch
Dissection Instruments and recommended text books

Instruments

Scalpel blade (No 22)

Instruments

Gold-handled, curved fine-tipped Scissors

5-6 inch Forceps

S B Adikari

Recommended Text Books

- Grant's Atlas of Anatomy by Ann M.R. Agur
- Grant's Dissector by Patrick W. Tank
- Wheater's Functional Histology by B Young and J.W. Heath
- Last's anatomy regional and applied by Chummy S. Sinnatamby
- Gray's Anatomy for students by Richard Drake
- Clinically oriented Anatomy by Keith L. Moore
- Clinical Anatomy by regions by Richard S. Snell
- Human Embryology by Prof. Malkanthi S. Chandrasekera

List of things to be brought by you on the day of introduction to dissections

- Scalpel blade and handle – 2 sets per group
- Non toothed-forceps with a broad tip – 2 per group
- Toothed-forceps with a broad tip – 2 per group
- Pair of scissors (curved) - 2 per group
- Cotton wool - 400 g pack
- Gauze bandage - 06 per group
- Two pairs of white socks
- One sponge (about 2 x 3 x 5 inches) to apply body fluid
- A green cloth 60 inches wide and 2 ½ meters long
- Lab coat
- Blu tac –one packet
- Liquid Hand wash –one bottle
- Liquid detergent –one bottle

Plastic tray aprox. 45cm X 30cm -01

Plastic tray aprox. 30cm X 8cm -01

Spray bottle 250-500ml x01

Plastic basket x01 aprox. 30cm X 8cm (to fit in to the small plastic tray -with or without a handle X01)

Dr. JK Dissanayake/ Head- Department of Anatomy