

NOTICE

2017/2018 Batch

Dissection Instruments and recommended text books

List of things to be brought by you on the day of introduction to dissections

- Cotton wool - 400 g pack
- Gauze bandage - 06 per group
- Two pairs of white socks
- Scalpel blade and handle – 2 sets per group
- Non-toothed-forceps with a broad tip – 2 per group
- Toothed-forceps with a broad tip – 2 per group
- Pair of scissors (curved) - 2 per group

Instruments

Instruments

Instruments

Gold-handled, curved fine-tipped Scissors

5-6 inch Forceps

List of things to be brought by you on the day of introduction to dissections...

- Lab coat
- Disposable gloves
- Liquid Hand wash – one bottle
- Liquid detergent – one bottle
- Two pairs of goggles
- One sponge (about 2 x 3 x 5 inches) to apply body fluid
- A grey clothe, 60 inches wide and 2 ½ meters long
- Blue tack – one packet

List of things to be brought by you on the day of introduction to dissections...

Pair of goggles x 02

Blue tack

List of things to be brought by you on the day of introduction to dissections...

Plastic tray aprox. 45cm x 30cm -01

Plastic tray aprox. 30cm x 8cm -01

Plastic basket x 01

Approx.. 30cm x 8cm (to fit in to the small plastic tray – with or without a handle x 01)

Spray bottle 250-500ml x 01

Books Recommended

- Grant's Atlas of Anatomy
- McMinn's colour atlas of Human Anatomy
- Wheater's Functional Histology by B Young and J.W. Heath
- LAST'S ANATOMY REGIONAL AND APPLIED
- Gray's Anatomy for students
- Clinically oriented Anatomy, By Keith L. Moore
- Clinical Anatomy by regions *by Richard S. Snell
- Human Embryology by Prof. Malkanthi S. Chandrasekera

Dr. JK Dissanayake

Head / Department of Anatomy

11.01.2019