

Therapeutics in Pharmacology – SGD (17/18 Batch)

Dr. Nandana Jayathilaka

14.10.2022 – 3.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m.

45 year old patient presented to the ED with the history suggestive of syncope and difficult in breathing 10 minutes after taking the lunch at a party.

He has a past history of DM on Metformin and Gliclazide

In the Emergency Department:

- A- Air way stridor is noted
- B- Tachypnea with respiratory rate is 26, Bilateral wheezing, Saturation – 94% on air
- C- Cold peripheries, Capillary refilling time more than 3 seconds, PR- 112/min, BP- 75/50 mmHg
- D- GCS- 14/15, Blood sugar 110mg/dl
- E- Urticarial skin rash all over the body, temperature within normal range

Questions:

What are your differential diagnoses?

What medications are useful in the management of this patient? And how do you justify the your answer in pharmacological point of view

2017/18 Batch

Therapeutics in Pharmacology SGD

Date	Time
14.10.2022 (Friday)	3.30 p.m. – 4.30 p.m.

Groups

All

Venue

West Lecture Theatre

Lecturer

Dr. Nandana Jayathilake