Year 1 Semester 2 Examination – July 2025

Feedback Session

MED1208 – Nutrition and Applied Biochemistry – 1

Out of the 249 registered candidates of the 23/24 batch for MED1208 – Nutrition and Applied Biochemistry – 1 module, 15 students have repeated the module and 1 was absent. Considering your performance in the above examination, Department of Biochemistry will conduct a feedback session with the aim of supporting you to improve your performance in future examinations.

- This session is mainly for the students who failed at MED1208 or were absent.
- Attendance is voluntary (not compulsory)
- Date and time – Wednesday, 15th October 2025

From 03.15 pm to 04.15 pm

- Venue – Seminar room, Department of Biochemistry
- The Chief Examiner of MED1208 will indicate the general weaknesses of the examination performance by each of you. You will be provided with additional guidance, time permitting. However, the level of support that will be offered to you will depend on the level of enthusiasm that each of you demonstrate.
